

Remote Selling

Transform your customer engagement from video collaboration to digital signature

What is CRIF Remote Selling?

Remote Selling is the CRIF solution that manages your end-to-end sales journey, transforming your customer engagement with a seamless UX, making your processes smoother and more efficient.

Through video collaboration, customers receive technical support, working with an agent on any product, completing related documents and when ready, adding a digital signature to conclude the process.

Main Features of CRIF Remote Selling?

- Digital signature
- Live interaction
- Video collaboration tools
- Omnichannel & workflow-guided UX
- Third-party integration ready

Key Performance Indicators

+100

Projects delivered worldwide

+25

Countries

>90%

Average NPS

Why use CRIF Remote Selling?

Three types of electronic signatures available

Fully assisted customer interaction

Clientless: no application to install

Customer journey with customizable workflow